The Process

Please send completed application to ashley@livebuchanan.com with the subject line: Business Incubator Application. The board of directors at LiveBuchanan will review your application and you will be notified if your business is eligible for consideration. If eligible, an appointment will be scheduled for a site visit and to discuss your application. You will need to then submit a copy of your basic business plan, including financial statements.

The incubator management team will review your application and all supporting documentation, and you will be notified of their decision within two weeks of meeting. If your application is approved and you do not have a formal business plan, you will be expected to create one within 3 months of starting the incubation program. We can help you with your business plan.

Questions can be submitted to ashley@livebuchanan.com

I acknowledge the information provided in this application is accurate. I also understand my information will only be shared with the board members of LiveBuchanan and its incubator management team.
